Physicians Prescribe Castoria.

CASTORIA has met with pronounced favor on the part of physicians, pharmaceutical societies and medical authorities. It is used by physicians with results most gratifying. The extended use of Castoria is unquestionably the result of three facts: 1st. The indisputable evidence that it is harmless; 2nd. That it not only allays stomach pains and quiets the nerves, but assimilates the food; 3rd. It is an agreeable and perfect substitute for castor oil. It is absolutely safe. It does not contain any opium, morphine, or other narcotic and does not stupefy. It is unlike Soothing Syrups, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, etc. This is a good deal for a medical journal to say. Our duty, however, is to expose danger and record the means of advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end. To our knowledge, Castoria is a remedy which produces composure and health, by regulating the system—not by stupefying it—and our readers are entitled to the information.—Hall's Journal of Health.

G. O. P. NATIONAL COMMITTEE PLANS TO SEAT CONTESTANTS

Ingenious Scheme to Duck Taft-Roosevelt Problem Is Reported.

With Hawaii's delegates on their way to the National convention at Cincinnati, and with H. L. Holstein, National committeeman, en route to attend the meeting of the committee, the news which arrived today that the National committee is planning to sidestep the Taft-Roosevelt dilemma is deeply interesting.

The following dispatch from Washington outlined the clever plan:

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 7. It developed today that the Republican National Committee is preparing to duck the embarrassing job of judging between Taft and Roosevelt at Cincinnati.

The business of the committee, which meets two weeks in advance of the National convention, is to decide all cases of contesting delegates. This committee, in view of the heated controversy, does not want to do. Its members are all practical politicians, and they knew the danger of getting on the opposite side of fight from the majority of Republican voters, in office or out.

Would Seat All Delegates.

Lately, through an exchange of letters, half a dozen of the most influential members of the committee have been talking about a plan to seat all delegations both "regular" and "semi-regular," giving each individual half a vote.

This ingenious scheme would permit the committee of any charge of plagiarism to sit out one candidate or the other. Incidentally, on the face of present returns, it would subtract 29 votes from Mr. Taft's 399 and add that number to Mr. Roosevelt's 233, which would rate Taft 312 and Roosevelt 399.

On the remaining 290 delegates to be elected, Roosevelt will probably get a majority. So if the committee really determines on this plan, the majority will begin looking for an substitute.

FATALLY BURNED.

Eva Steinberg, who accidentally overturns an oil lamp in her room yesterday afternoon, was burned severely, as she did not notice the fire before being conveyed to the hospital. The unfortunate woman occupied a room in the old K. block, in the western section, and it was said by the kindly attendants of the hospital that the entire building was saved from destruction, it having caught fire from the overturned lamp. Deputy Sheriff Rose had held an inquest this evening.

CITY FATHERS FACE DEPLETED TREASURY AS NEW WORK IS MOOTED

The city and county voters present a depleted appearance as comfort demands are made for funds to carry forward proposed improvements.

Queen street, from its intersection with Nuuanu street and extending to Baldwin road, is described by a host of business men to be the worst thoroughfare in the city of Honolulu. A monster petition so far as influence of Mayor J. J. Fern, which demands that the main artery leading from the wharves to the business and retail district be improved.

Engineer Whittemore gave the city fathers a decided check when 10 estimates of $11,000 were presented. It is noted that it will require this sum to pave the street with a suitable material.

According to the petitioners, Queen street is one of the streets subject to the severest usage and that 50 per cent of the business traffic went over that thoroughfare, while it was one of the worst streets in the city.

All the driving from the Baldwin and Rockwell wharves and the entire stretch to and from the Inter Island wharves was concentrated over that road.

Queen street between Fort and Nuuanu is already paved with creosoted blocks.

The matter was referred to the roads and parks committee to provide funds.

The supervisors have finally adopted a plan whereby the city will expend $26,000 on its appropriation of $26,000 for the widening of Hotel street.

After narrowing down the estimate submitted by a lot of property owners, lessees, tenants and other claimants, the figures for widening the street near its intersection with Fort street are now fixed at approximately $12,000.

A specially appointed panel of arbitration, including Messrs. L. M. Whitehouse, Fred Harrison and John Lauer, submitted a report filing the reconstruction of the Campbell building at $10,000; Damon building, $12,500.

As the remainder of the expenses, the supervisor summoned them up briefly as follows: Damon building and needed for widening, $10,000; reconstruction of building, $12,500; demolition of Culham settlement, $12,500; rent of Culham's quarters, $3000; total, $45,500. Campbell building—Shultz claim, $15,000; Wadsworth, $22,50; Lee Kwong's, $22,50; fund for widening, $10,500; reconstruction, $10,000; rents, etc., $1000; $26,517.50; making a grand total of $114,517.50.

Supervisor Low, who has been absent from the city for the month past was inclined to demur at the report. He refused to vote for the general appropriation, while Dwight took the stand that in the matter of assessing betterments the city was not getting the best end of the deal. However, the Hotel street widening is now in a completing stage.

The committee of commissioners was passed for third reading by the supervisors last night. The vote, which was unanimous, was also passed for third reading. The amendment relating to the paving of Fort street was voted down.

Members of the Prospect Heights Improvement Club had attended the session of the Board of Supervisors to request the board to carry out its promise to give Prospect street a good rock base with a three-inch rolled macadam top dressing. The spokesman for the club was D. L. Williamson, O. Swain and C. G. Owen, who recalled to the memory of the road committee their promise.

The amended ordinance was passed for third reading by the supervisors last night. The vote, which was unanimous, was also passed for third reading. The amendment relating to the paving of Fort street was voted down.
